Our Garden Brian Schrag

Eb F Everyone look: Have you ever seen anyone so lovely?
Eb F
Have you ever seen hair so light eyes so bright
Eb nose so right?

I look at you and our love so new and my heart beats on my soul Today, you're the only one I know

Come with me to our garden
Where the fruit is ripe and warm
sweet like a storm
All alone in our garden
Close the door

Everyone look: Have you ever seen anyone so lovely? Have you ever seen hair still so light eyes still bright nose still so right?

By my side every year every hope every tear Years gone away, but your smile stays on me

Come with me to our garden
Where the fruit is ripe and warm
sweet like a storm
All alone in our garden
Close the door
